

Super Bowl halftime show was perverted use of the media. If I want my family to observe sex perverts and simulated sex on stage I would subscribe to some sleazy cable channel. This was way over the top. Is there any decency left in America? I'm ashamed to be associated with people who think this "show" was even close to being appropriate. Shame on CBS and those who make these decisions.